ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS A YEAR IN ADVANCE

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION HOLDS HIGH CARNIVAL

On Monday evening the Athletic Association of Union College gave a banquet to the students and a few citizens which proved a very pleasing social function. Aunt Mae Wallace and her assistants put on a delicious spread which received the earnest attention of all present. W. B. Trosper, U. C. coach, acted as toast master in an able manner. After a compliment to Aunt Mae and expressing his appreciation to the faculty and the student body, he asked that all help make the football season of next year a success.

Dr. Franklin, responding to a toast, spoke of the fine work done by Miss Mildred Murphy, Miss Cora Sevier and Coach Trosper. He said he attributed the success of the teams to the clean lives of the players and the esprit de corps of the students generally. He recalled the remark of a train conductor to the effect that when Union College students travel on their tours they always behave like ladies and gentlemen and attributed this fact to the atmosphere of Christian refinement to be found at U. C.

Governor James D. Black made a humorous talk stating he knew not a thing of athletics but praised the morale of the students. He told of the first attempt to play baseball at his college when a boy. The president took the "stick" in his hand, the ball ran up it and bounced onto the president's nose which bled copiously. As a consequence the president thereupon lost all interest in baseball for the college.

The editor made a fine address of one half minute by a stop watch. He was followed by Dr. McClean who is full of racy humor and kept the students amused right along. He said, however, that he has acquired a special affection for Union College which is miles ahead of other colleges he knows. He spoke in most positive terms of the possibility of putting thru the Endowment campaign.

Dr. George M. Klepfer then led the students in a round of college song and all dispersed well pleased with an excellent time.

METHODIST CHURCH

The revival meeting conducted by the Rev. Carl E. Vogel closed last Sunday. The work of Mr. Vogel was in every way very acceptable and telling. The church was lifted to a higher plane of spiritual living. On Sunday morning thirty-five were admitted into the church in full connection and in the evening five more making a total of forty. There are still others to come in and on next Sunday the opportunity will be given to those that wish to take their church membership with us.

Next Sunday the pastor, Rev. John Owen Gross, will preach at both the morning and evening services. Sunday School at 9:45. Last Sunday 332 were present at S. S. This Sunday we want at least an equal number. Epworth League at 6 p.m.

LOCAL KIWANIS

Bump Into Good Fellowship

Tuesday night was marked by a big milestone in the development of good fellowship and progress in Barbourville and Knox County, as well as we hope too, for the State at large.

A Selig, of Knoxville, Tenn., the big and genial Field Representative of Kiwanis International, had the obsequies of selfishness in charge together with cliques and misunderstanding and buried them with a tombstone at their head and feet. In their place he reared the standard of unity and unselfish service. We believe it to be one of the biggest things that has been done for Barbourville and the boys who gave their time and energy to make Kiwanis a real thing are to be congratulated for what they have done.

About fifty sat down to a first class meal in the dining room of the Jones Hotel which meal received the hearty approbation of the boys. After the feed all entered into the spirit of the rollicking Kiwanis songs. Those who have voices made music and those who haven't pretended they had and the result was a happy Duke's mixture of sound that pleased everybody.

Mr. Selig explained that Kiwanis has for its slogan, "We Build," indicating that it is a constructive force. What it requires of its members is to exercise fairness and integrity, or in other words, that they be good Indians.

The Kiwanis was started in Detroit in 1915 and there are now 746 clubs with a membership of 66,000 which proves its usefulness and popularity. It has had the most outstanding success among luncheon clubs in growth and accomplishment of any in the country.

The three principal features of Kiwanis are good fellowship, the educational touch and the development of town, county, state and nation. It is a clearing house for ideas with from 50 to 75 hand-picked men working together for the common good. It answers the old saying, "if they would do—" etc.

The speaker instanced some of the things for which Kiwanis may always stand, such as orphanages, good roads, law and order, new schools, town boosting, etc. At Norfolk they helped the Kings Daughters to establish a free clinic; at Asheville they are educating a blind girl in music. There are various ways of raising money for these projects without going down into the individual pocket.

Mr. Selig stated that the district organization consists of the states of Tennessee and Kentucky, the former having twenty-two clubs and the latter thirteen. The live clubs at Middlesboro and Pineville are sponsors for Barbourville. Hal Mould, of Pineville, received complimentary mention from the speaker as being an exceedingly live wire.

Kiwanis has the moral business ethics of the Y. M. C. A., the city boosting of the Chamber of Commerce and the good fellowship of the Shriners, which is a combination hard to beat.

Net Income

Mr. Selig warned the members not to expect too much in thirty days, but to develop the co-operative spirit which will surprise everybody in the breaking down of sectionalism, petty jealousy or factionalism. In fact, Kiwanis will change the entire morale of a community and weld it firmly together, even tho' split wide open.

G. M. Richards, who has not only the most silky and dulcet tones in his voice, but also the diaphanous peal of distant thunder, was chosen as song leader by acclamation.

The next meeting will be held one week from tonight, April 28th, at 7 o'clock in the evening.

HE IS RIGHT ABOUT BARBOURVILLE

Hamlet, N. C. 4-10-22
Mountain Advocate Pub. Co.
Barbourville, Ky.

Received copy of paper last week. Was very proud of same and hope to get paper each week. As I spent my boyhood days on the banks of the old Cumberland it is with pleasure I receive accounts of the happenings in and around Barbourville, one of the best towns on the map, or it seems so to me altho I have been away for twenty odd years and I am looking forward each week to the arrival of the Advocate. So please don't overlook a single copy but let it come.

Respectfully,
I. E. Howell.

WELCOME VISITORS HERE

Prof. C. E. Ahler and Joseph Metcalf, of Locust Grove Military Institute near Atlanta, Ga., came in over the week end on a visit to friends. Prof. Ahler is delighted with his new location and with his band and orchestra. The latter will make a two week's tour as soon as school is out.

FIRE AT MIDDLESBORO

Fire destroyed the Summers Grocery and the stock of the Schultz Drug Company in Middlesboro on Thursday of last week. The fire, which started in the Summers Grocery may be traceable to linseed oil rags which had been used while painting the store. The damage was approximately $10,000.

W. M. S.

The Woman's Missionary Society met Wednesday, March 29th, at the home of Mrs. W. R. Lay. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. D. Edgar Allen. All joined in singing "Blessed Assurance." We were led in prayer by Mrs. M. L. Williams.

We had a short business meeting after which the following program was carried out:

Bible Study, in charge of Mrs. W. W. Evans, subject, Tithing.

Mrs. W. F. Parker—Two Striking Testimonies.

Mrs. J. W. Croley—The Layman's View on Tithing.

Mrs. Allen—Talk on Tithing.

There being no further business we were dismissed by sentence prayers.

All ladies of the Church are cordially invited to become members of this society.

Mrs. W. F. Parker, Mrs. H. Holman, Mrs. Sudie Sutton, Committee.

FAMOUS EVANGELISTS TO HOLD MEETING AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Roger H. Fife

Beginning next Sunday morning, April 23, the Fife Evangelistic Company will be at the Christian Church for three weeks conducting services each night at 7:30. This team, consisting of father and son, is one of the strongest and most successful among the Christian Churches.

Roger Fife is a preacher of unusual power. His appeal is to the reason rather than to the emotion of his audience. Robert S., the junior member of the party, is director of music and personal work, singer, slide trombone soloist, reader and impersonator.

Every person in town is invited to hear these men.

"Happy Bob" Fife

AMERICAN LEGION

Will meet in Knox County Armory, Jones Building, Friday night at 7 o'clock. All ex-service men are urged to be present.

The Methodist Church held a very beautiful service Good Friday with some fifty present. The Holy Communion was celebrated as a reminder of the sacrifice of Christ. It is good to note that the evangelical churches are getting back to the earlier customs of the church at this sacred season upon which is founded the structure of Christ's church.

"JUNE"

Did you see "June?" It is difficult to say whether you did or not as the big Union College auditorium was so crowded that it was impossible to say who was there and who was not.

"June" was a SUCCESS and a big success at that. It went off with the snap and spirit of harmony that brought round after round of applause. It is a play built around a boarding house and with clear incisiveness showed us ourselves as others see us, with our traits of generosity, kindness, ignorance—in fact all those jumbled traits that go to make up human character. There was not a fizzle or blunder during the whole evening, showing the effect of real training and an intelligent comprehension of what the drama requires.

Union College never puts on anything tawdry or poor class and we are sure that "June" will stand a trip to some of the surrounding towns and will make a big hit.

We congratulate both Miss Mildred Murphy, the gifted expression teacher, and the students who participated in one of the most high class little plays that has been seen in Barbourville. Such plays brighten life and help us the better to understand its complexities.

ROSEMARY

When Mrs. Geo. F. Tinsley undertakes to stage a play our people are always sure they will be well entertained. Rosemary, staged under the direction of Mrs. Tinsley by a group of Eighth Grade girls for the benefit of the Parent Teacher Association, was well played thruout. May be the play was a little old or a bit heavy for such young girls but we cannot imagine it being more pleasingly presented. The parts were well memorized and each one knew her cues. Each one deserves special mention which space forbids, but Alice Dodson will always be remembered as a most delightful "old" grandma, Hazel Jones as a charming young girl, while Edna Herschberg, Mary Richardson and Etta Maxey produced a riot of fun.

And once again it gives us pleasure to favorably mention the excellent music furnished by our most accommodating band.

SLUSHER

Mrs. Martha Slusher, 79 years of age, died Thursday of last week at her home on Stinking Creek and was buried Saturday.

Dr. E. T. Franklin, Sr., is already making plans for the future career of E. T. Jr., who is with his mother at the Logan Sanitarium, taking life with the joyous abandon which distinguishes the extremely young. Congratulations, tho Miss Gail, the youthful daughter, is somewhat noncommittal as to her approval. She doubtless feels that the situation may call for some self adjustment.

THE VICTORY WAY

Is A Combined Insurance Policy and Savings Account

Come in and investigate this splendid method. Will you need $1000 ten years from now? If you die before ten years, will your wife or children need the $1000? If so you had better see us at once.

You make small monthly payments into a savings account, which covers insurance and accumulates funds for your use. In ten years you will deposit $912.20 we will pay you $1000. If you die before you have deposited more than one installment we will pay your family $1000.

If you live the ten years we will pay you the $1000. But you think, suppose I do not want to keep up the account for that long. Well, you can quit any time and we will pay you all money you have deposited and interest on same, less the small premium paid to the Insurance Company for your protection.

You think—Suppose I failed to make deposit when due, would I lose what I have saved? No. You can withdraw your savings any time, or you can make up your lost payments any time during the year.

YOU CAN'T LOSE. Come in and let us explain this splendid savings system to you fully.

GENERAL HISTORICAL SKETCH OF THE CUMBERLAND VALLEY
ADVENT-CHRISTIAN
CONFERENCE

by R. N. Baldwin
Adventism started as a distinct religious movement in the United States in 1842, when Wm. Miller, an eloquent and passionate preacher in the Baptist Church in New York State, began to preach with fervor
and emphasis the scriptures teaching the immediate and personal second coming of Christ back to earth again to awake the sleeping dead, to judge the world in righteousness and to reward every man and woman so judged according as their work shall be.

Mr. Miller never left the Baptist church, although persecuted by the leading preachers of all denominations, especially by those of his own denomination. The only doctrine he advocated that was contrary to the accepted doctrines of the Baptist faith was the nearness and certainty of the Second Coming of Christ. He believed that the soul is immortal
and that the wicked will suffer eternal torment in an endless and conscious hell.

A branch of the Adventist denomination today who hold the same views held by Rev. Miller is called Evangelical Adventists. Then we have another branch of Adventists who hold that the wicked will never be raised from the dead—that when a wicked person dies he is dead and unconscious to all eternity. That branch is called Adventist Life believers. Another branch of Adven-tists is what is called Seventh Day Adventists. They emphasize keeping the seventh day for the Sabbath.
They are in harmony with the Seventh Day Baptists and with the Jews
upon the Sabbath question.

The Advent Christian denomination is separate and aloof from all these denominations. It holds to the doctrine of the nearness and personal second coming of Christ to earth to judge the world in righteousness and the rewarding of every man according as his works shall be.
But unlike Rev. Miller and the Russellites they set apart no particular date for His coming. Unlike the Adventist Life believers, they claim that all the dead, both small and great, shall come forth at the sounding of the trumpet and they that have done good shall come forth to the resurrection of life, and they
that have done evil to the resurrection of damnation. (Rev. 20:12; John 5:29.)

Unlike the Seventh Day Adven-tists they keep Sunday as a day of rest as a matter of convenience rather than because they believe the Fourth Commandment to be binding now. They claim the fourth commandment was abrogated on the tree of the cross when Christ died. God wanted the Jews to keep holy a certain DAY. Now he wants holy PEOPLE on every day. All the branches of Adventism are growing rapidly thruout the world. They are supporting thousands of missionaries in foreign fields and thousands of evangelists in the home field.
More than a hundred printing presses are turning out each year tons of Adventist literature while more than fifty colleges are training

the young folks of these denominations to become leaders in every walk of life.

In the Kentucky Mountains Adventism is gaining better nearly everywhere than in the Kentucky Mountains. Here it has never been able to attract the people of wealth and prestige as it has done in many other sections of the country. For character and ability its members
here are ready to measure arms with the shrewdest and best of all denominations—but numerically we are weak.

In 1896 Elder W. W. Beech came from the mountains of Western North Carolina to preach the glad tidings of a soon coming Saviour
back to earth to make restitution for Adam's fall. This restitution is to consist of a new heaven (atmosphere) and a new earth wherein shall dwell only righteous people, and they shall live forever, while the sinner shall be "consumed,"
"burned up," "become a thing of nothing," "suffer death," "be twice dead plucked up by the roots" and
"be as they never had been." —
See 2 Peter 3:13; Ps. 104:35; Acts
3:21; Ps. 37: 10-20; Mal. 4:1;
Matt. 8:7; Is. 29:20; 41:12; Ps.
21:9; 62:3; 37:9; Jude 12; Rev.
10: 14:5; Ezek. 18:4-20; Rom. 6:23
Obadiah 1:16; Jer. 10:24.

The preaching of this theology by Bro. Beech aroused bitter antagonism upon the part of preachers of Southeastern Kentucky. Some went so far as to threaten bodily harm to Bro. Beech if he continued to preach such horrible heresies. But he kept on at his self-appointed task of planting the truth of the Bible in Southeastern Kentucky. He was the first Adventist to preach in Kentucky.

In 1896 Elders W. F. Hendrix
and S. E. Gragg came from North Carolina to help Bro. Beech. They stayed several months and did much preaching and gave the gospel of conditional immortality a stronger
foothold in Kentucky.

Elder J. G. Dula came from West Virginia in 1898 and did much preaching during his sojourn of several months. He was a preacher of prolific eloquence and aroused great enthusiasm. Elders Hendrix and Gragg came back from North Carolina in 1899 to do additional work in this field. A number of churches were organized and Elder J. H.
West was ordained to preach the gospel. He was the first native Adventist preacher in Kentucky and has done a big work for the cause.

In 1909 Elders W. F. Hendrix
and R. L. Isbell, of the Piedmont
A. C. Conference of North Carolina, came, preached a month for us and reorganized the work that had fallen into a bad state of disorder thru the emigration of preachers and members into other fields. This was the beginning over of the Cumberland Valley Adventist Christian Conference.

Elder Joe Sherouse, of Florida,
came to our aid in 1920 and stayed three months doing much good. Under his leadership the Conference assumed new ambition and new ideals and is now going forth to conquer.

Needless to relate, the sectarian clergy in Southeastern Kentucky
have fought Adventism at each step of its progress. They have heaped foul and merciless persecution upon every preacher of the Adventist faith and upon every member who had the courage to give to every man that asked him a reason for the hope that has been in him. They did all this in addition to dubbing

the doctrine as heresy and spurning
Adventists as heretics.

Their first attack against Adventism was the "heresy trials" in which they excluded all supposed as well as all known Adventists. When they found "heresy trials" did no good they undertook to debate the matter with Adventist preachers.

Bro. West held one debate with a Methodist minister named McGlam-mery in Knox County and another with a Christian minister at Camp Ground, Laurel County. Elder Beech held debates with Rev. John Allen and L. W. Hampton, Baptist ministers of Knox County. Elder Hendrix held a four days debate with Rev. Burch, a Baptist minister, on Little Poplar Creek, Knox County.

Elder R. N. Baldwin, who began in 1909 before he was seventeen years old, has held two debates. One with Rev. W. H. Williams, a Christian minister, pastor of the First Church of God, Terre Haute, Ind.
This debate, held in the Court House
at Barbourville, Ky., lasted four days and nights, each speaker using eight hours. The subject was punishment of the wicked. This was the greatest debate on the subject yet recorded. Elder Baldwin debated the same subject with Dan Roe, a Baptist minister, at Himyar, Ky., in 1929.

It is needless to report the results of any of these debates more than to say that they have served to plough
the ground we wish to cultivate.
What we need is more debate and Adventists are ready to meet all who wish to engage in this wholesome
method of disseminating truth.

What we now need is a strenuous and continued campaign to convince sinners that God is a God of Love and a Father of Mercy; that he loves them to the uttermost—even to their eternal destruction—that he wants to save them from their sins.

We need more praying Adventists.
We need more paying among Adven-tists to further the Gospel of Truth.
We need not wait until our opposers become convinced that we are right.
Most of them in Knox, Whitley and Bell counties are already convinced that we are right and are ready to jump into the band wagon when Adventism becomes popular. Preachers over these three counties are often heard to say, "when you get right down to the way that the Bible reads, the Adventists have the Truth
but it is not the popular time to preach their doctrine." We would ask when the proper time will come?
People are dying every day without the Truth. These preachers have a chance to give them the bread of Truth to eat; instead they give them
the doctrine of the serpent. (Gen.
3:4.) Woe unto such preachers whose god is popularity! —Adv.

UNION COLLEGE NOTES

President Franklin and Dr. Mc
Clean left Tuesday for a week's trip.
Kenneth Tuggle was shaking hands with friends on the Campus last week. We are always happy to see Kenneth. He gave a snappy little talk to the Academy Seniors
Thursday morning.

Miss Norma Carter has returned to her home in Louisville after a week's visit with her sister, Miss Mae Carter.

Jesse Faulkner was in Louisville
last week end on business.

Our Annual Athletic Banquet
was held in the dining room Monday evening at 5:30. Aunt Mae deserves all credit for a bill of fare
that was amply equal to the occasion. Following the meal toasts were given under the direction of Coach Trosper by President Franklin, Governor Black Editor Burman
of the Advocate and Dr. McLean. Dr.
Klepper brought the good time to an end by leading the crowd in the rollicking athletic songs he has written for U. C. this year.

Union College had a delightful surprise in a short Easter visit from Professor Ahler and Joe Medcalf.
It was good to have Prof. Ahler with us again—even tho he left his violin, clarinet and saxophone all in Locust Grove, Ga. We did want to hear him in a solo again. Both Prof. Ahler and Joe Medcalf played with the band who furnished the music at the comedy "June."

WORK OF KNOX COUNTY AGENT

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of last week Junior Agricultural Club meetings were held at Swan
Pond, Swan Lake and Davis Bend
with more than one hundred boys,
girls and parents in attendance.
Much interest was shown in the outlook, especially in the poultry project. It seems that all the hens of the county must have gotten broody
at once. About sixty settings of eggs were given out to the club members and orders taken for more than one hundred settings during the week.
Boys and girls are making strong efforts to have prize winning poultry at the fairs this summer and fall.

More than one hundred apple,
peach, plum, pear and cherry trees
and grape vines received the second spraying this season on the farm of G. W. Mayhew this week. Twenty-five apple and peach trees had an application of nitrate of soda fertilizer to demonstrate its use in bringing old trees into heavy production.

Farmers about Barbourville unloaded a carload of acid phosphate
last week.

Orchard and Garden Tips

To prevent wormy apples spray
the trees before the calyx cups of fruit closes with arsenate of lead powders one and one half pounds to fifty gallons of water. If arsenate of lead paste is used three pounds

to fifty gallons of water will do.
One and one-half gallons of liquid or three and one half pounds of powdered lime-sulfur added to the above solution will do much to control
scab, blotch and the rots.

Peaches should be sprayed with one pound of powdered or two of the paste of arsenate of lead to fifty gallons of water. Two or three pounds of lime should be added to prevent burning of the foliage.

Garden seeds should not be covered too deeply. About one half an inch is best for the average garden seed.

Wood ashes and pulverized tobacco stems will furnish a cheap source of potash, an element that is needed for the successful growing of good vegetables. If phosphate is needed it should be applied as acid phosphate. Liberal quantities of lime will help to make the garden
more productive.

Stringless, Green Pod and Bountiful are good varieties of bush beans
and Kentucky Wonder and Lazy Wife are fine varieties of pole beans.
Bush beans may be planted about April 20th and pole beans May 1st.
Successive plantings should be made until August to insure a plentiful supply for the home.

Cucumbers, cantaloupes, Sweet Corn and the second planting of such crops as Peas, Lettuce and Radishes may be planted about May 1st.

Cucumbers are best planted in hills about four feet apart each way.
The soil in these hills should be thoroughly prepared to a depth of from eight to eighteen inches and a fork full of rotted manure placed in each hill. White Spine or Davis Perfect are good varieties.

Every garden ought to have a few hills of cantaloupes. They should be planted the same as cucumbers.
Rocky Fords, Netted Gem and Tip
Top are good varieties.

Sweet corn should be planted for table purposes. Golden Bantam, Adam's Early, Country Gentleman
and Stowell's Evergreen are good.

Rheumatism at 60

How glorious you will feel, mother, when your rheumatism is all gone. Let S. S. S. do it. It will build you up, too!

S. S. S. Thoroughly Rids the Body of Rheumatism Impurities.

Somewhere's mother is suffering tonight. The scourge of rheumatism has wrecked her body; limping and suffering, bent forward, she sees but the common ground, but her aged heart still belongs to the stars. Does anybody care? S. S. S. is one of the greatest blood-purifiers known, and it helps build more blood cells. Its medicinal ingredients are purely vegetable. It never disarranges the stomach. It is, in fact, a splendid tonic, a blood maker, a blood enricher. It banishes rheumatism from joints, muscles and the entire body. It builds firm flesh. It is what somebody's mother needs tonight! Mother, if you can not go out to get a bottle of S. S. S. yourself, surely somebody in your family will. Somebody, get a bottle of S. S. S. now! Let somebody's mother begin to feel joyful again tonight. Maybe, maybe it's your mother! S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size is the more economical.

INTERESTED IN SHEEP

In our issue of March 31st we carried an illustration of the Rambouillet ram, which has got Mr. Henry Slusher, of Erosee, interested in the breed. In response to a letter on the subject Congressman J. M. Robison is taking the question up with the Department of Agriculture to get all the data possible for Mr. Slusher.

There is no doubt that sheep growing in this section would be profitable. The meat is exceptionally healthful and nutritious. A shoulder of mutton with mint sauce is good, either hot or cold and would add greatly to the farm menu as well as provide ready money for sheep sold at the local markets or shipment by carload lots.

Where the editor was raised a prize sheep, bought for shipment to improve the flocks of Australia, brought as high as $5,000.

CHEESE MAKING

When one thinks of cheese making, one naturally thinks of a cow, but there is another kind of cheese that is probably more profitable than that of the cow. It is goat cheese.

While in Colorado the editor visited a goat ranch where cheese was made from the milk of the goats and in a little rock house, about 12 by 14 feet, and which was not more than half full of cheese the owner said there was some $5,000 worth of goat cheese.

The milking is comical to watch. The goats are brought under a enclosed shed with window like spaces at one side. By these spaces are two steps and back of the steps a seat where the milker sits. The goats crowd around the milkers anxious to be milked. After being milked the goat is given a slap on the flank or a push and she disappears thru the open space into the corral outside.

This brand of cheese finds ready market in the cities.

Knox County, with its brush and hillsides, would readily lend itself to this industry. Kid meat is excellent and the milk is free from the taint of tuberculosis and other diseases that may be found in cows' milk.

Full particulars as to making this cheese may be had from the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., or thru our Congressman, J. M. Robison.

Uncle Walt's Story

THE FIRST TIME

"I CONFESS that the thought of death always raises gooseflesh on me," said the melancholy boarder. "The only comfort is that a man dies but once."

"That's what makes it so unpleasant," observed the star boarder. "If a man died at regular intervals, say once a year, he'd soon get used to it, and regard it as part of the day's work. A man dies and that's the end of him, so far as this world is concerned. He has no chance to come back and bore his friends with a long story about it. If he had that chance it would make a great difference. The ordinary citizen will undergo anything, if he can sit around and talk about it afterward."

"The first time we are up against anything disagreeable always is the worst. We can get used to anything, and enjoy anything, if we have enough of it. We are born optimists, my dear Mrs. Jiggers, always looking around for a grain of comfort, and manufacturing one if there is none in sight."

"I'll never forget the first time I went to see the dentist on professional business. I had been entertaining a rip-snorting toothache for several days. The agony was so great that it would take the pen of a Dante to do justice to it. Yet I couldn't muster up enough courage to go to the dentist's. I had heard so many stories of the atrocious suffering one undergoes at his hands that my warlike spirit faltered. But finally the man who occupied the room next to mine came to my apartment, armed with a large iron poker, and said that I had kept him awake for three nights, and the limit had been reached. If I didn't chase myself out of the house and let him have a night's rest he would proceed to make a few dents in my skull."

"Thus turned adrift into the tempest, the first man I met was a dentist, and he simply forced me to his parlor. He was a friend of the family and wouldn't take 'no' for an answer."

"He had to carry me up the stairway to his office, I had become so weak in the legs. I supposed he would rend me limb from limb, but he really was a painless dentist. In three or, perhaps, four shakes he was holding before my eyes the tooth which had caused all the anguish, and I was enjoying solid comfort once more."

"Since that experience I look upon the modern dentist as a public benefactor, and my one regret is that I can't drop into his office every day or two and have a few teeth pulled. But all my original teeth were extracted by the painless process long ago, and the lignum vitae teeth I am now wearing are strangers to aches and pains."

"The first time a man is married he is so excited that he forgets the wedding ring or the fee for the preacher, or some other essential. For days before the event he is in such a fever that his friends have trouble holding him down; and when at last the fateful hour arrives he doesn't seem like a responsible human being. I always feel sorry for a young bridegroom, he looks so rattled, and he has such a strong resemblance to a total loss."

"But the next time he gets married he is as cool and intrepid as though he made a practice of acquiring a bride before tea every day, and if he goes to the altar three or four times in the course of his useful career, marriage seems to him no more interesting than receiving an automobile catalogue by mail."

"And this is true of everything, Mrs. Jiggers. A man even gets used to family boarding house, where collections are made strictly in advance and, this being admitted, no further argument is necessary."

Birthday.

Little Robert D., two and one-half years old, of Franklin, has a ten-year-old cousin, Gordon, who to his baby mind, is the hero in all that takes place, and whatever Gordie says or does is all right. Robert's mother had been telling him about Christmas, and why it was celebrated.

One evening after a strenuous day of play with the big cousin, when mother put Robert to bed, she said:

"And why do we have Christmas, Robert? Whose birthday is it?"

"Santa and Gordie's," promptly replied the youngster. — Indianapolis News.

"Ah shuah does pity you," said a colored pugilist to his opponent as they squared off. "Ah was bohn with box-id gloves on."

"Maybe you was," retorted the other; "and Ah reckons you're going to die de same way."

Diner—Yes, all but the bill. Just take that back and boil it down a little.

WILL HONOR HEROES

Commonwealth of Kentucky To Raise Funds For Memorial Building at Lexington

Commemoration of the sacrifice of Kentucky heroes in the World War will be the object of thousands of men, women and children of the State during the week of April 23-29 when they set out to raise $300,000 for a memorial building.

Names of the 3,056 who died will be placed on the bronze tablets in the building which will be used daily as a chapel and union by thousands of young people from every section of Kentucky attending the State University at Lexington. Records of Kentucky's part in the war, work of private citizens and of those in the military service, will be kept there in addition to war trophies.

An army of 150,000 school children will start out Monday, April 24, to raise one dollar each. The plan was endorsed by State Superintendent George Colvin and the Kentucky Educational Association at its annual meeting in Louisville. Superintendents, principals and teachers have been requested to assume direction of the school children's soliciting, acting as treasurer and either turning in the funds to the woman County Chairman or sending them to State Headquarters, 210 Fifth Street, Louisville.

Governor Morrow's proclamation follows:

"Those who have not forgotten the courage of the living and the glorious sacrifice of the dead; those who remember the soldiers of the great war who offered and gave themselves for us, will during the week of April 23-29 conduct throughout Kentucky a campaign to raise $300,000 for the purpose of erecting at the University of Kentucky a memorial chapel to perpetuate the lives and deeds and services of the American soldiers of the great war."

"The University of the Commonwealth is linked with the young manhood of Kentucky, and it is therefore fitting that on such a spot there should stand a memorial to the courageous youth of our State. No real monument or other memorial has been erected in Kentucky for this purpose thus far. I am, therefore, confident that this appeal will reach the heart and the purse of the patriotic citizens of the State. We honor ourselves when we honor those who died for us. We make certain that the spirit of yesterday will live throughout our tomorrows if we honor courage and nobility and sacrifice."

"I, therefore, set aside the week of April 23-29 as War Memorial Week, and call upon the men and women of Kentucky, the sons and daughters of the Republic, those who inherit and hold all for which the dead have died to lend their hearts and hands to the success of this campaign. The living offered and the dead gave their lives. We can give out of that which God has given to us that the memory of their deeds shall abide forever with us."

James C. Wilson, of Louisville, who was one of the most successful directors of Liberty Loan campaigns in the South, has been appointed State Chairman for this campaign.

The following poem, dedicating the Kentucky Memorial Building to the fallen heroes, winner of a state-wide contest, was written by Mrs. Eleanor Duncan Wood, of Maysville:

Dear Motherland, Kentucky, here we bring
The names of these thy sons who nobly died.
Who for Thy sake and Freedom's put aside
Young Love, and Lusty Life, and Call of Spring,
And strode down Death's dark ways adventuring.

We cannot bring them back; we cannot give
To their young eyes the joy of sunrise, nor
To eager ears that call they harkened for
The cardinal among the hills of home.
They live
But in our hearts—and these are fugitive.

We shall go down to dust even as they.
So to Thy Heart, Kentucky, bring we now
These deathless names. A coronet for thy brow Best-loved, and Beautiful. And thou shalt pay Unending honor till Time's latest day.

And it shall be throughout the coming years
Young hearts shall proudly read these hero-names
And feel within their own the sacred flames,
"We'll live for what they died for—spite of fears."
So faith shall spring once more from blood and tears.

Keep safe these names: Thy sons who would not save Themselves at price of Liberty and Thee.
The "Old Kentucky Home" shall hallowed be Throughout the ages by the blood they gave;
Keep thou them safe, Thy Beautiful and Brave.

This poem will be on marble or bronze and placed in the Memorial Building.

HOW PROHIBITION HAS AFFECTED COMMUNITIES

At Birmingham, Ala., where in 1912 a stockade had to be built to accommodate the overflow of prisoners consigned to the county jail, the latter, suffering from lack of booze-fighters and their victims, has been closed and turned into a school for juvenile offenders.

At Camden, the workhouse has been closed as the result of prohibition.

Ditto at Peoria, Ills., the greatest whiskey manufacturing center of the United States.

Fitchburg, Mass., with a jail commitment of 175 has closed up. No commitments for two years. Before that time, 250 were crowded in.

The house of correction at Ipswich, Mass., has closed its doors since prohibition came in.

Crime stalks in the footsteps of liquor and no amount of sophistry can alter the grim fact.

FRUIT IN KNOX COUNTY

A number of people have expressed their appreciation over the interest shown by the Mountain Advocate in fruit culture in this section. This is a matter which may well be taken up by a number of citizens and pushed to a conclusion. An orchard company might be formed and incorporated with sufficient land to do the thing right, a good man employed, and while the apples are coming into bearing, small fruits such as strawberries, raspberries, dewberries might be grown to meet the preliminary expenses. Careful pruning and spraying should be insisted on for the apple trees and the most approved method of protection from frost put into practice. We believe the small fruits intelligently looked after, will more than pay for the care of the orchard and will point the way toward making this section a banner fruit region.

Congress Goes to Aid of Agricultural Industry

List of More Important Measures Written,
Introduced and Passed by Republicans
To Assist Farmers During Crisis

U. S. REPRESENTATIVE J. N. TINCER (KAN-SAS), MEMBER HOUSE COMMITTEE ON AGRICULTURE

Farmers of the United States not only comprise the largest single class of producers but they are the largest single class of consumers of finished products of all kinds, and the largest class of shippers. In view of all this, it is essential, in order that the country as a whole be prosperous, that the farmer as a class be prosperous.

When the Republican Party came into power in March, 1921, the agricultural sections of the country were in the midst of the greatest depression they had ever experienced.

In response to a general demand from the agricultural interests the Republican Congress, on May 27, 1921, 40 days after the session convened, enacted the Emergency, or Farmers' Relief, This stopped at once the influx of agricultural imports and saved to the American farm producer his home markets.

The best proof that the tariff really protects the American farmer is the fact that since its operation Canada has renewed her efforts to negotiate a reciprocity treaty that will admit her agricultural products into this country free. As a further proof of the effectiveness of this tariff it was renewed November 16, 1921, by the solid vote of the congressmen representing the agricultural States. The enactment of this tariff was opposed by the solid Democratic minority in both House and Senate, with a few notable exceptions.

For more than a quarter of a century there has been a demand from the producers and consumers for control of the packing and allied industries. Responsive to this demand Congress enacted such a law. It cannot be gained that the live-stock industry of the United States has had better treatment from the very day that this law began to operate. This bill was drawn by Republicans, introduced in both branches of Congress by Republicans, and passed by both branches of Congress controlled by Republicans.

For more than 40 years there has been pending before Congress, in one form or another, legislation to control grain exchanges and to stop the manipulation of prices of farm products. Such a law has been enacted by this Republican Congress. Like the packer control law, it was written by Republicans, introduced by Republicans and passed by Republican majorities. One of the immediate and urgent needs of the farming communities was credit to tide them over their immediate crisis. In order to furnish this credit the Republican Congress amended the War Finance Corporation Act so as to enable that organization to have a revolving fund of $1,000,000,000 to be used exclusively in making loans to live-stock and agricultural interests. Since that body began functioning under its newly acquired powers it has been loaning money to the agricultural and live-stock interests of the United States at a rate in excess of $1,000,000 a day.

One of the earliest acts of this Congress was the appropriation of $2,000,000 to be used in the purchase of seed for the drought-stricken farmers of the northwest. Since that time legislation and appropriations have been made to assist drought-stricken farmers in other sections of the country, and also to relieve the settlers upon reclamation and irrigation projects.

Still another act of this Congress was the increase of the available capital of the Farm Loan Banks in the sum of $25,000,000, giving the Farm Loan Banks a total revolving fund of $56,000,000. This bill was written by Republicans, introduced by Republicans and passed by Republican majorities in both branches of Congress.

Modern methods in the commercial world have demonstrated the necessity of the farmer's being permitted to sell his crops under a co-operative system, and that this might be done legally and without interference or irritation, the present Congress enacted the Co-operative Marketing Bill. This is another bill written by Republicans, introduced in both branches of Congress by Republicans and passed by Republican majorities.

Honorable Henry C. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, truly summed it up when he said:

"Never in the same length of time did Congress give more serious attention to farm needs. All of the legislation is of a constructive character and will be more helpful than is now realized."

Administration Puts Business in Government

Encourages Individual Initiative, Establishes Budget System, Reduces Onerous Taxes, Restores Public Confidence and Stands for Sane Policies

U. S. REPRESENTATIVE HOMER P. SNYDER
(NEW YORK)

The Republican administration came into authority in March, 1921, pledged to put more business in government and to have less of government in business. That pledge has been liberally redeemed. One of the first things which the Republican administration did was to impress upon business interests that it was up to them to become self-reliant if they wished to become self-sustaining; that they must begin to work out their own salvation instead of running to the Government for artificial stimulus. Legislation has been enacted wherever it could prove helpful, but it has not been permitted to take the place of individual energy and thrift.

Simultaneously with the elimination of Government in business there was an injection of business in Government. Perhaps what will go down as one of the greatest pieces of constructive legislation of the last half century was the enactment of a law creating a Budget Bureau, which made it not only possible but mandatory for the first time in the history of the United States Government to conduct the Government's business in an orderly manner. It is largely due to the inauguration of this budget system that the daily operating expenses of the Government have been reduced in the aggregate over $2,000,000 a day under this administration.

The business interests of the country were given consideration in the enactment of the new tax measure. Surtaxes were decreased, excess profits taxes were abolished altogether, and the shipping interests of the United States—which include practically every business and industry—were relieved from the burdensome transportation taxes that were levied upon freight, express and passenger traffic.

The new Act to facilitate the organization of corporations to promote commerce was enacted in order to render easier a step to business interests desiring to expand American markets in foreign countries. The new law on production and shipment of goods at home.

By rendering assistance to the agricultural sections the Congress kept alive the buying power of over half the nation's population. This aid, although extended directly to agriculture, was of vital importance to business.

Although no act of Congress figured in the process, nevertheless, the influence of the Republican administration, of which the Congress is a part, gave such confidence to the business world that within a year from the time the Republican party took control of all branches of the Government prices of practically all sound securities advanced materially. The most outstanding example of this is the increase of 15 per cent, in the value of $18,000,000,000 worth of outstanding Liberty bonds.

As another reflex of the influence of the Republican administration, interest rates have been lowered from 7 per cent to 4 1/2 within 12 months, thus releasing money at a reasonable rate for the use of business interests.

No one has the temerity to deny that business conditions today, compared with a year ago, are not infinitely better and that prospects are undoubtedly for further improvement. There is no other explanation for this transformation in the business world except the 12 months' application of Republican policies and the certain knowledge throughout the business world that the influences and policies of the Republican Party, which will direct the affairs of the nation for the next two years, are constructive influences that make for accumulation rather than waste, assist legitimate activities, stand four-squared for the protection of capital and labor and stand equally firm against the fallacious theories of Communism and Socialism.

In brief, the commercial optimism with which the people of all classes in the United States face the coming year must be wholly attributed to the fact that all branches of the Government of the United States are now in control of the Republican Party.

It is probably one of the most truthful reports that has ever come back to town ament the catch made. Generally fishermen feel, and have felt from time immemorial, that a fish story, however grandiose, does not partake of the nature of a lie, but Rev. Gross states that the bunch of men caught only about six pounds of fish.—a three pound cat and some suckers and perch. It is understood from Petrie, who is a mere tobacco salesman and therefore not so amenable to strict fishing fact, that the cat-fish was weighed on its own scales.

A TALK WITH A BARBOURVILLE MAN

Mr. L. W. Hampton, Farmer of Barbourville, Tells of Interesting Experience

There is nothing like a talk with one of our own citizens for giving hope and encouragement to the anxious sufferer from the dread kidney disease. We, therefore, give here an interview with a Barbourville man:

"After I had the 'flu' about two years ago my kidneys bothered me," says Mr. Hampton. "They were weak and irregular and the kidney secretions were painful in passage. My back was weak and ached thru the small part just over my kidneys. I was lame and sore in the muscles of my hips and side when I got up in the morning. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the Hawn Drug Co. and they soon straightened me up in good shape. Doan's are a fine kidney medicine and I will recommend them to anyone whenever I have an opportunity."

THE MOUNTAIN ADVOCATE OFFERS TO BOYS AND GIRLS

The Mountain Advocate is interested in the agricultural development of Knox County and with that end in view is making a SPECIAL OFFER to the Boys and Girls Agricultural Clubs of the County. It is as follows:

That members of the different clubs shall take subscriptions thru the county for the Mountain Advocate at the usual price of $1.50 per year and shall send the subscriptions and names of subscribers to the office of the Mountain Advocate, which in turn, will take 50c of each $1.50 and place same in a fund to pay the way of boys and girls chosen by the different clubs to represent them at the annual Junior Week to be held under the auspices of the University of Kentucky, Lexington, June 19 to 24.

Last year 176 boys and girls attended the meetings and this year it is expected that 300 will be present. We believe the boys and girls will profit largely thru these meetings and that the county will be the better off for what they learn there. We are working in conjunction with Messrs. J. M. Feltner, of London, District Agent of the Boys and Girls Agricultural Clubs, and Earl Mayhew, local County Agent.

We trust citizens of the county will do their share in helping the boys and girls of their different sections by subscribing for the Mountain Advocate, and at the same time will enjoy the newspaper which has received the approving good-will of all who now are subscribers.

We are developing a plan also by which any excess money received thru this method may be used to send boys and girls to the Kentucky State Fair to be held in Louisville this fall.

It should be understood that the Advocate cannot be issued for $1.00 a year which will be the real price we receive for it under the rules of this offer, but we are anxious to help the boys and girls of the county and at the same time make our people better acquainted with the home paper—The Mountain Advocate.

Besides the excellent news we carry, the paper is now well printed as we have installed a new press this year, which does fine work. We scraped the old press because we felt that the print did not measure up to what it should. The boys and girls will therefore have no need to feel ashamed of the appearance of the Advocate and may indeed make its clear print, as well as its newness, one of their strong selling points.

The cost of sending a boy or girl to Lexington will be $16.08 and it will therefore be necessary to secure 33 subscriptions for each member of the different clubs who may be chosen to go.

PLAIDS AND FRINGES

Fashion still puts striped materials in the lead for sports skirts, but they have some competition in plaid and checked patterns in all skirt materials. Checks with fringed edges, are reminiscent of shawls and they make many of the smart new models in which the fringe is substituted for a hem at the bottom of the skirt and also finishes the patch pockets. A skirt of this kind appears in the picture above cut on simple lines and having a separate belt of the material. These fringed materials are particularly smart in the new wrapped skirts with the fringed edge arranged to run from belt to hem.

Sport skirts and street skirts are a little longer than they were, the regulation length being from six to eight inches from the floor. Flannel in plain colors, in stripes and plaids, is a rival for prunella and other cloths.

The Story of Our States

By JONATHAN BRACE XXIV.—MISSOURI

WHETHER Missouri was actually visited by De Soto at the time of his discovery of the Mississippi is not definitely known. The first authentic exploration of this territory was by the French, Joliet and Father Marquette in 1673. French settlers gradually located in Missouri, in 1764 St. Louis being settled. This was one year after Spain acquired from France the Louisiana Territory of which Missouri was a part.

Colonization greatly increased after the ordinance of 1787, which excluded slavery from the Northwest territory, as this naturally deflected many to the territory west of the Mississippi who otherwise would have settled in the north. The slavery question continued to hold the stage in Missouri history. After the Louisiana Purchase in 1803 added this vast western area to the United States, emigration increased to such an extent that in 1820 Missouri formed a state government and applied for admission to the Union. Bitter antagonism immediately arose in congress against the addition of another slave state. On the other hand the slavery adherents pointed out that Maine had just been taken into the Union as a free state and one state would therefore balance the other. A final settlement was made by the famous Missouri compromise, which accepted Missouri as a slave state but prohibited slavery in the rest of the territory north of a line extending from the southern boundary of Missouri to the Rocky Mountains. Indeed, it was this agitation which, temporarily smothered at that time, burst forth in the Civil war.

Missouri is in the forefront of the important states in national politics as it has eighteen electoral votes for president. Its area is 69,420 square miles. (© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

The Story of Our States

By JONATHAN BRACE IX.—NEW HAMPSHIRE

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE falls the honor of casting the vote which definitely formed the United States. The Constitution was to formally take effect when nine states had ratified it and on June 11, 1788, New Hampshire rounded out the necessary quota of the states. This beat Virginia for the deciding vote by only four days.

The beginnings of New Hampshire lead back to Captain Mason, who had been governor of Portsmouth in Hampshire, England. Thus was the name of the colony derived and also that of its first city, Portsmouth. As a reward for Mason's faithfulness to King Charles he was allotted a large territory north of the Merrimack river. The first settlements were started in 1623 in Rye and Dover. Shortly after, a theological dispute arose in Boston, led by Mrs. Anne Hutchinson, which resulted in her being banished. Some of her followers went north and founded Exeter, not far from the towns of Portsmouth and Dover. Shortly after the town of Hampton was settled by Massachusetts people. As Captain Mason died soon after this, these four towns in 1641 joined themselves to Massachusetts. In 1679, however, King Charles II separated them again and formed the royal province of New Hampshire.

The present area of New Hampshire is 9,341 square miles. From the rugged aspect of its White mountains has come the name Granite state, by which it is often popularly called. The population of New Hampshire warrants an electoral vote of four for president. (© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Regrow Lost Parts.

Newts and salamanders and the tadpoles of frogs and toads have great powers of regrowing parts that have been bitten off, but, so far as known, lizards are the only backboneed animals that show surrender of parts. Among backboneless animals it often occurs. This peculiarity is found among sea slugs and other molluscs and in many kinds of worms. In the Palolo worm, which burrows in the coral reefs, nearly the whole of the body is broken off at the breeding season, and it bursts in the water, liberating tens of thousands of germ cells, while the head remains in the rock and makes a new body.

WHY I GO TO SUNDAY SCHOOL

This is a broad subject; there are so many things to be taken into consideration, but we will touch upon only a few of the many.

Since God placed Adam in the Garden of Eden there has been some plan of worship for the different classes of God's children. Some people have worshiped a river as their god; some have worshiped mountains, or minerals within them, stars, and various other things. Even the fierce savages of central Africa worship a god of some kind. But we, as a civilized and far-seeing people, worship the only true and living God.

Take up the "Bible Study." A Sunday School is one of the best places to make a complete study of the holy and sacred old Book. Of course, it is true that you may have Mission Study classes that meet some time in the week or at other times, but rarely ever do you see the interest manifested there that you see in the Sunday School room. All churches that are properly organized have their own Sunday Schools.

Show me a church that does not have a good spiritual and interested Sunday School and I will show you a church that is going down very fast. So that is one reason that I go to Sunday School.

Now we take up the children. I think that anyone should be interested enough in their duties that they should come to Sunday School and bring their children. We think sometimes that it makes no difference what we do, no one is interested in what we do. Well, that is a wrong attitude. Somewhere someone has helped to influence you and the same is true of yourself—some one is influenced by you. So by being in Sunday School you may help to lead some poor, lost soul to know Jesus Christ, and that may be father, mother, brother, sister or child.

Back to the children. A Sunday School is one of the best ways to teach the child. No matter how studious the boy or girl may be in the public school if they are not getting the advantage of the Sunday School they are deprived of something that is very essential to them. Many a great man was started heaven ward by the meek and lowly Sunday School. So that is one more reason why I go to Sunday School—to teach and to be taught.

Now take up the fellowship. You have often heard it said that "Love is association." Well, liberal association is fellowship. Can you think of any place or any thing that can bring you in closer touch with your fellow man than the Sunday School? We should all strive to draw ourselves closer to each other; it will be of great help to us in time to come. If you should leave your own community and go into some other and join the Sunday School and the church going crowd—most every time you will succeed in your other affairs so much easier.

The study of God's word will prove animating and refreshing to the soul. It will purify your lives and prepare you for death. Its epistles are all freighted with virtue and laden with love. "For as one thinketh in his heart, so is he."—Prov. 23:7.

BREAKFAST WHEEZES

Mrs. Barnes, of the Tri-State Telephone Co., is full of business and social calls this week.

We expect L. R. Benjamin will soon be charged with radio-activity if the craze over the country continues as it apparently will do.

Miss Geneva Mae Pickelle, court stenographer, should be a fine musician. She reads notes so easily.

The reason Judge R. S. Rose does not get bored in court is on account of the interesting arguments to which he listens.

Commonwealth's Attorney J. C. Bird does not play poker, but he does like to call his opponent's bluff.

Geo. W. Tye is trying to counteract the auto monopoly by putting collars and breeching on his horses as an attraction.

Miss Cora Sevier manages to be in the swim most of the time.

Reciprocity: That law which enables Jake Rasnick, of Cole, Hughes & Co., to keep the accounts which keep him.

Owing to the name he has we do not see why Gus Hauser is not in the house building business.

One reason for Miss Laura Hayes popularity is that she "suits" so many people.
